1. The Margarethen/Moos (P 49/X 57) Castle, occasionally referred to as manor, was not occupied between 9:45 a.m. and 10 a.m. [REDACTED] According to a notification, by the burgomaster, stuck to the entrance of the castle, the castle will still be used by the Soviet Occupation Forces by order of the Soviet Komendatura in Bruck/Leitha (P 49/X 77).

2. [REDACTED] Goetzendorf (P 49/X 57) airfield was to be vacated and the equipment was to be transferred to Hungary. The field had not been re-occupied by early June 1953.

3. [REDACTED] source determined that the buildings of the Goetzendorf military post previously occupied by Soviet troops were vacated and marked with the inscription "Off limits". The former kitchen was being whitewashed. A Soviet senior lieutenant wearing blue service color who visited Goetzendorf to take care of some private affairs told civilians that the Soviet troops from Goetzendorf military post had been transferred to Hungary about 5 weeks ago and that they would return in the fall of 1953.

4. Between 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 25X1A
[REDACTED] with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets, moved from Parndorf (P 48/X 77) to Mannersdorf (P 48/X 66) via Goetzendorf in order to pick up cement.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. Prior to early April 1953, Goetzendorf airfield and Goetzendorf and Margarethen/Moos military posts were occupied by a bomber regiment. This regiment was transferred to Hungary according to two independent sources.
